NOTICE OF FINAL ORDER AS IT PERTAINS TO DONALD WILSON

VIA CERTIFIED MAIL

Mr. Milan Saha, Esquire
43 Broad Street
Plattsburgh, New York 12901

Re: Administrative Order CD-2019-0011
Donald Wilson

Dear Mr. Saha:

On March 19, 2019, the Alabama Securities Commission ("Commission") issued Administrative Order No. CD-2019-0011. As noted in the Notice of Right to a Hearing, Section 8-6-32, Code of Alabama 1975, allows 28 days to perfect your right to a formal hearing before the Commission. On September 3, 2020, the Commission received correspondence requesting the above-referenced administrative order be revisited after the standard 28-day review period. Further, your correspondence notified the Commission staff that you were representing Mr. Wilson in this matter.

Over the last several months, the Commission has reviewed this matter, and is not inclined to re-open this file. On May 24, 2021, Deputy Director of Administration, Ed Reed, left a voicemail at (646) 397-9056 notifying you that service by Mr. Wilson was perfected and if the Commission received no response in 10 days, the Order will be made final. That time period has expired. Therefore, please accept this as notice that Administrative Order No. CD-2019-0011 has been made a Final Order of the Commission, as it pertains to your client Donald Wilson.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Michelle Ray
Associate Counsel
